SENATOR GRADY GIVES LIE TO LEADER MURPHY AND DECLARES OPEN WARFARE

Will Be President of Senate or an Insurgent Against Tammany.

HURLS BITTER WORDS.

Governor-Elect Dix Blamed by Veteran's Friends for His Repudiation.

Senator Thomas F. Grady to-day openly branded as an "untruth" the statement of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, that he intends to withdraw from the race for temporary President and party leader of the State Senate. Senator Grady went further, declaring that he is still in the race for the leadership, and that if he is not elected he will accept no other chairmanship or posts of importance in the gift of the party.

This declaration means unmistakably that if Grady is turned down—and it is certain he will be—he will play the role of insurgent and legislative buccaneer. He will make no alliances with his Democratic colleagues, but will be a party unto himself, ready to cast his lot in whatever direction he can stir up trouble for Gov. Dix and the Democratic majority.

Murphy's Support Withdrawn. Democratic leaders are not weakening under Grady's threatened insurgency. It was announced to-day that Senator Robert F. Wagner had been urged upon as the next temporary President, and that word had gone out to Democratic Senators that Murphy had withdrawn his support from Grady and favored the selection of Senator Wagner. This announcement will be welcomed by up-State Democrats, who have threatened to bolt the caucus if Murphy insisted in making an announcement of the turn-down of Grady. The Tammany Senator to-day issued this statement:

Grady's Declaration. I am certain that Mr. Murphy never uttered or authorized the statement that I said that I would not consent to accept any position in the Senate, which would take up all of my time, for the all-sufficient reason that such a statement would be absolutely untrue.

The only foundation there could be for such a statement would be my oft-repeated declaration, not only to Mr. Murphy, but to a number of gentlemen prominent in Democratic circles, and as well as to a number of my colleagues, that after having been nominated in the Senate with their nomination as the minority candidate for President pro tem, I could not and would not now, when my party associates are in the majority, consent to accept any other position than the one for which I had their unqualified support since 1898. That is my attitude now and will be to the end.

I take it as accepted by my friends and foes alike that if the Democratic party was in the minority in the Senate of 1911-1912 there would be no great contest as to who would be the Democratic floor leader.

This is the only statement I have to make beyond the positive assurance that I have not the slightest intention to resign from the Senate during the coming year.

Blame Dix for Downfall. Friends of Senator Grady lay the responsibility for his downfall at the door of Governor-elect Dix. While the Governor-elect has taken the stand at all times since his election that he would not interfere with the Legislature, it was learned to-day that he has secretly demanded that Tammany withdraw its support from Grady.

This is the second time in his career that Grady has been repudiated by the Governor of his own party. Grover Cleveland, when Governor, in a public letter to John Kelly, then leader of Tammany Hall, asked that Grady be not returned to the Legislature during his term of office. That request was complied with just as Charles F. Mur-

PAROLE REFUSED MEN WHO KILLED BOSSCHIETER GIRL

Jersey Court Turns Down Applications of Kerr, McAllister and Campbell.

The New Jersey Court of Parole, sitting at Trenton, this afternoon dismissed the petitions for the parole of George J. Kerr and Walter C. McAllister, two of the four Paterson men who are serving State Prison sentences in connection with the death of Jennie Bosschietter, nine years ago.

The court also voted down the granting of a parole to Andrew J. Campbell, a third one of the four men. Death, the fourth man, had no petition before the court.

SHOT WOMAN AND UNCLE.

Roselle Man Caught After He Carried Her Away.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 28.—Arthur Matthews, a young, energetic worker of Roselle, was late last night kidnapped and shot. Mrs. Mary Rodgers of Westfield avenue, Roselle Park, with whom he was infatuated, and also wounded Albert Johnson, an uncle of the woman, was captured this afternoon.

Young Matthews and Mrs. Rodgers had occupied rooms in a boarding house in this city for several months. During Matthews' absence yesterday Johnson and his wife persuaded the woman to return to their home. Late last night Matthews called at Johnson's home and at the point of a revolver walked Mrs. Rodgers several miles through the woods after he had shot Johnson. Matthews and the woman quarreled and he shot her. The wounds are not necessarily fatal.

FARMERS WANT CASH FOR THEIR "16-HOUR-EGGS"

As Company Gets $1.50 a Dozen, They Think They Should Get Some.

EATON'S LITTLE PLAN.

Supplies Hen Fruit Which He Advertises in Verse to Fifth Avenue.

Did you ever eat a Sixteen-Hour-Egg? No? Well, then, you have missed a treat and saved some money. The Sixteen-Hour-Egg was an idea conceived by the ingenious mind of one Seymour Eaton, who has two offices in Fifth avenue—one at No. 284 and the other at No. 384. Mr. Eaton believed that in these days of "rote and spots" lots of people would be willing to pay lots of money for fresh eggs, and therefore he formed the Sixteen Hour Egg Company.

From this company you could purchase—providing you and the price—strictly fresh eggs for the trifling charge of one dollar and a half a dozen. These eggs were guaranteed by the company to reach you within sixteen hours after they were laid.

Got the Eggs. Great idea, what? At any rate Mr. Eaton and his partner, Mr. Robert M. McAllister thought so, and they immediately got busy with the farmers in the vicinity to supply them with fresh eggs at a little above the market price. The Newtown Producing Company—composed of a number of farmers of that ideal locality—supplied the Sixteen Hour Egg Company with $1.50 worth of hen fruit.

Then the Newtown Producing Company stopped producing, or rather did not ship any more eggs and asked for a trifle on account. It was not forthcoming. Charles H. Schock of the Newtowners was made the assignee, and an attachment for the above amount was taken against the Sixteen Hour Egg Company. To-day Stevens Johnson & Royall, counsel for the egg company, asked Supreme Court Justice Page in Part I, Special Term, to vacate the order for the attachment. Decision was reserved.

A. H. Favour of McKelvey & Favour, No. 84 William street, counsel for Mr. Schock, told an Evening World reporter to-day.

Schock Was Shocked. "Yes, Mr. Schock got a shock for fair when he found out that neither he nor any of the other farmers who supplied the Sixteen Hour Egg Company with eggs could get any money for their hen's production. It was a mighty good scheme that Mr. Eaton worked. You see he has another company of Sixteen Hour Eggs in Delaware, besides the one in New York, so when the farmers here asked for their money he simply said that they would have to get it from the Delaware company. I suppose if the Delaware farmers ask for money they will be told to see the New York company."

According to Mr. Favour, the Sixteen Hour Eggs were extensively advertised by Mr. Eaton in beautiful little couplets which Mr. Eaton composed himself.

The following is gratuitously suggested to the Egg Company for advertising purposes:

"All our hens drink lemon sour, Then lay eggs in sixteen hours."

Or, "If you wish to feel merry and gay Eat Sixteen-hour eggs twice every day."

300 VOW NEVER TO SWEAR.

Free Masons at Dinner Agree to Give Up Use of Profanity.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 28.—As the clock struck midnight Tuesday night three hundred Free Masons seated at a dinner table in the new Constabulary Temple here celebrated St. John's Day by registering a mental vow never again to use profanity.

The vow was taken at the suggestion of Grand Master Frederick Craig of Des Moines, who was the guest of honor and principal speaker of the evening.

PRETTY GIRL WINS; HER JEALOUS AUNT COULDN'T BAR HER

Jeanette Cooke, Who Was Detained at Ellis Island, Is Permitted to Land.

PROF COOP IS WITH HER.

Charge Made by Mrs. Coop Against the Young Woman Is Withdrawn.

Miss Jeanette Cooke was released this afternoon from detention on Ellis Island. She is the pretty young girl of eighteen who was detained at the instance of Mrs. Carmen Coop, an actress, the wife of Prof. Squire Coop, who occupies the chair of music in the University of Utah. The Coops have been separated four years, but when Miss Cooke arrived here on the Oceanic yesterday Mrs. Coop, through her lawyers, opposed her landing on the ground that she was not a proper person to be admitted. The actress alleged that she feared the girl would win her husband's love, and she made an elaborate statement in which she declared there was danger of a romantic attachment between Miss Cooke and Prof. Coop.

Charges Unfounded. Prof. Coop convinced Immigration Commissioner Williams this afternoon that his wife's charges were unfounded. He declared that her effort to bar the admission of Miss Cooke was merely an effort on his wife's part to advertise herself, as she was about to appear in a new theatrical production. The Utah musician produced papers to show that James Cooke, Miss Cooke's father, had appointed him (Prof. Coop) her guardian. The papers were signed last summer. Mr. Cooke had expressed the desire that Prof. Coop take charge of his daughter's education. Mr. Cooke, who is a man of large means, had provided ample funds for his daughter.

When these proofs were laid before Commissioner Williams he instantly ordered that the girl be released, and this afternoon she came to Manhattan with Prof. Coop. Rooms were engaged for her at the New Netherlands Hotel. Prof. Coop took her there and then went to his apartment in the Hotel Wolcott. He will take Miss Cooke to Salt Lake City early next week.

Calis It Self Advertising.

On landing from Ellis Island, Prof. Coop said: "I much prefer to say nothing about this case. For that reason I at first denied my identity. James Cooke, as I explained to the Immigration Commissioner, entrusted his daughter to my charge. He imposed upon me the trust of bringing her to America and entering her in school. He provided ample funds for the purpose. I am going to accomplish this. My wife and I separated four years ago. Our relations to-day are the same as they were four years ago when we separated. She has simply taken advantage of this episode to advertise herself."

Mrs. Coop, opposing the landing of Miss Cooke, declared at great length that she still adored her husband and was insanely jealous of him. Although long separated from him, she yearned for his love. She had been warned by a kinwoman that Miss Cooke was highly romantic and susceptible.

Mrs. Coop did not appear in the case this afternoon, and her lawyers sent word to Commissioner Williams that she had withdrawn her objections to Miss Cooke.

AMBASSADOR'S WIFE VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS.

Baroness Hengelmüller's Condition Grave, and Operation May Be Impossible.

(Special to The Evening World.) ARSHEWITZ, Dec. 28.—The Baroness Hengelmüller, wife of the Austrian Ambassador, whose reported utterances concerning Washington society recently caused a stir, is believed to be in imminent danger of death from appendicitis. The Baroness is at the embassy, in which she remained only a few days ago. The question whether the knife or remedial that are sometimes efficacious before the resort to surgery became the accepted method of treatment will be depended upon will be decided late to-day. There is some doubt as to whether the Baroness can stand the shock of an operation.

JEANETTE COOKE.

SHEEHAN COMES OUT IN THE RACE FOR SENATORSHIP

Announces His Candidacy in Letter Outlining His View on Public Questions.

William F. Sheehan made formal declaration of his candidacy for the United States Senate late this afternoon.

In a letter to Mayor Louis F. Fuhman of Buffalo, Sheehan defines his position on public questions. After reciting his views of what a Senator should be, he says:

I am in favor of the extension and development of the parcel post, and I believe in a comprehensive and practical scheme for the conservation of all our natural resources. I believe the Federal Government should have power to impose an income tax, for at times it may be essential to our preservation as a nation, but we should be wary of the attempts that will be made to make such a tax a cloak for further governmental and political extravagance.

Personally I have not favored the election of United States Senators by popular vote, but my party having declared in favor of it, I in good faith accept that declaration.

I am fully conscious of the obligations and responsibilities which the acceptance of a great trust like this involves. The duty to party, to State and to country is a solemn one. If chosen, I shall try to be true to them all.

If I am called to service in the national Senate my motto will be: forward and onward, but steady, always steady.

Bank Wrecker Accused by Grand Jury of $90,000 Theft Merely Guarded by Detectives While Alienists Examine Him.

BAIL FIXED AT $25,000 ON FAKE MORTGAGE CHARGE.

His Washington Savings Bank Closed, Tying Up Money of 7,000 Depositors—Small Tradesmen Who Had Their All in the Northern Hard Hit.

Joseph G. Robin, under indictment for stealing $90,000 and under arrest, reached the home of his sister, Dr. Louise Robinovitch, at No. 28 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, late this afternoon in the custody of Detectives Flood and Leigh. He will remain at Dr. Robinovitch's house under the eyes of the detectives until alienists employed by the District Attorney and William Travers Jerome decide whether he is insane or not.

Robin was indicted at 1 o'clock this afternoon. A bench warrant was issued by Judge Crain and detectives were sent with it to an address furnished by Mr. Jerome, in whose custody Robin has been since yesterday evening.

From the point where the detectives placed Robin under arrest the prisoner, his guards, Mr. Jerome, former District Attorney Kresel, Dr. Robinovitch and Dr. Austin Flint rode in automobiles to Dr. Robinovitch's residence. Dr. William Mason, who, with Dr. Flint, is to decide upon Robin's mental condition, was sent for and arrived in about half an hour.

If the doctors decide that Robin is sane enough to make a plea in court he will be arraigned to plead to the indictment to-morrow morning. If they decide he is insane he will be committed to an institution. Bail has been fixed in the sum of $25,000.

Indictment Due to Fake Mortgage. In explanation of the Grand Jury's action the following statement was given out by the District Attorney:

"This indictment was based upon an affidavit made by Frederic K. Morris, formerly a confidential employee of Robin's. Morris avers that at Robin's dictation he drew up two participation agreements, purporting to give the Washington Savings Bank participation in a mortgage of $20,000 and $30,000, respectively, in a mortgage for $50,000, stated to have been made prior to that date (April 15, 1910), by the Fidelity Development Company, owner of the Morris Park property, to the Title and Guarantee Company of Rochester, of which Robin, through his interests in the Acme Indemnity Company, had secured control.

These participation agreements were signed by Anthony Stumpf, vice-president, and by William V. Lomax, secretary of the Title and Guarantee Company, and in exchange for them the Washington Savings Bank delivered two of its checks aggregating $50,000—one for $25,000 and the other for $25,000. These checks were delivered by Dr. Cheney, secretary of the Washington Savings Bank, after having been drawn at Robin's dictation, either to Robin himself or at his office on the 15th of April, and were deposited to the credit of the Title and Guarantee Company.

Robin has been adjudged of unsound mind in an ex parte proceeding. I have suggested to the District Attorney and understand that he agrees with me that it would be useless at the present moment to enter into a legal discussion of this issue.

Plan for Examination. "I suggest that so far as the criminal law is concerned, the most important element is that the defendant be arraigned to answer to the indictment, but I have been assured that his present condition is as I have indicated to the court. My suggestion is that he be allowed to go to the premises of which the District Attorney has knowledge.
